“ Jimmy, Bill and I just found out about your mother when we went back to visit her. The last time we visited must have been very shortly before her death. I loved her and your father so much. They were the grandparents I never had. Your mom reminded me of her sister Rose (Bill's mom)... she could have a real "bite" to her. I appreciated that side of her. We are so very sorry and we send our condolences. Would you let us know where she and Freddie are buried so that we can go and pay our respects. She was one of a kind.
