“ I sang with Roger in the 8:30, then 8:00 am choir at St. Francis, and sat directly behind him. I fondly remember that we always had a lot of laughs, cracking jokes and poking fun at each other. I always thought of Roger as a dapper dresser. He told me one of the first people to make him feel welcomed at St. Francis was my daughter, Tracey, who was a child at the time. My sincerest condolences to Roger's family and loved ones.
